JAZZ WORKSHOP CONCERT
SCHEDULED MAY 21 AT UM

MISSOULA--

The University of Montana Jazz Workshop and stage bands from Sentinel, Hellgate and Columbia Falls High Schools will be featured along with the "Brown Sugar" and "Silvercloud" rock groups during a jazz workshop concert Friday (May 21) at UM.

The concert, scheduled for 7 p.m. in the University Center Ballroom, is open to the public without charge.

Appearing as guest performer with the UM workshop will be Tom Peterson, a professional jazz saxophonist from Los Angeles, Calif. A group of about 20 UM students also will perform two of Peterson's arrangements, "Cissy Strut" and "Diamond Dust."

Peterson also will be conducting a clinic on jazz improvisation Friday at 2:30 p.m. in room 1 of the music building. The clinic is open to the public.

The concert of big band sounds is sponsored by the UM Jazz Workshop, which is under the direction of Lance R. Boyd, a UM music instructor and assistant band director.

Frank L. Kenney, Sentinel High School band conductor, will be directing the Sentinel stage band, and Charles H. Johnson, Hellgate High School band director, will lead the Hellgate group.

Donald Lawrence, Columbia Falls High School band director, will direct the "Columbians," the CFHS stage band.

The "Brown Sugar" rock group is lead by Paul Russell Jr., and "Silvercloud" is lead by Fred Vansand. Both are UM students.
